Notice Regarding Acquisition of Shares of COA TECHNOLOGY CO., LTD.

V Technology Co., Ltd. (134 Godo-cho, Hodogaya-ku, Yokohama-shi, Kanagawa, Representative Director Shigeto Sugimoto, hereinafter "the Company") hereby announces that, at its Board of Directors meeting held on May 12, the Company resolved to acquire all of the issued shares of COA TEHNOLOGY CO., LTD. (2-9-18 Hikawa-cho, Toda-shi, Saitama, Representative Director Isao Sawamoto, hereinafter "COA").

Details

1. Purpose and Background of the Share Acquisition

Under its medium-term management plan, the Company has set forth a policy of leveraging the technological foundation cultivated in the flat panel display field to develop its semiconductor equipment business into a second pillar of earnings. Welcoming COA into the Company's group as a subsidiary is part of the M&A strategy aimed at realizing this objective.
COA engages in the design, development, manufacture, and maintenance of semiconductor functional water generators. Its development track record is highly regarded, and it has continuously delivered its products to major semiconductor-related companies both in Japan and overseas.
COA's products are also expected to be utilized in the advanced packaging field, where stacking and integration continue to advance, and are anticipated to accelerate the Company's advanced packaging strategy. Through this, the Company will generate synergies by both deepening relationships with existing customers and acquiring new customers.
